Rail~Volution
Position Description

Program Director

About Rail~Volution

Rail~Volution’s mission is to serve as a catalyst for the movement to build livable communities with transit by inspiring people in communities and regions to make better transit and land-use decisions. We do this by partnering, equipping, and connecting people and institutions at all levels.

For the past 20 years, Rail~Volution has produced a state-of-the-art conference on building livable communities with transit. Based on its success, the organization has become a well-respected resource for public, private, and non-profit leaders interested in promoting transit, land-use, and transit oriented development. The organization has a new strategic plan to expand its reach and impact by building a learning network, information resource hub, and capacity building programs.

Rail~Volution is a growing organization headquartered in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Currently, there are 3 full-time staff and several consultants with ongoing roles. The Program Director will be the fourth full-time staff member, but we expect to hire another full-time employee before year-end. Rail~Volution is an equal opportunity employer and seeks applicants who will contribute to the diversity of its staff.

Program Director Position

The Program Director is a new position that reports to the Chief Executive Officer. The Director is charged with developing and implementing a new capacity building program focused on increasing the leadership capacity of people, organizations, and regions to promote, develop, and execute projects that build livable communities with transit. Working with a program committee and the CEO, the Director will oversee the development, implementation, and execution of the new program, including establishing the specific goals and strategies. This is an exciting opportunity for a self-motivated, entrepreneur with leadership skills and a passion for community improvement.
